Beautiful, 32-acre horse farm just off I-15S/340W. Take the Mt. Zion Road exit, turn onto Cap Stine Road at the top of the exit ramp. Farm is two miles on the left. Owners Ed & Merrie Aiken are writers and have bred Arabian horses since 1984. Riding instructor James Blehr has 14 years riding, 6 years teaching experience.

Boarding, no-stress riding lessons, safety, and FUN!

Imagine this: You are writing a wonderful story of a girl and her horse, but you have never touched a horse. How can you describe how a horse blows into your nose so you'll recognize him next time? How he feels after a run in the field? The noise he makes when he welcomes you at feeding time? The way he moves at a walk or trot? Spend some time with Victory Equine Centre and learn about horses. Experience Arabian horses of many ages, genders, sizes, and colors. Now, write what you know.

- Horse anatomy, historical overview
- Equine terminology you can use
- Horses in science fiction/fantasy, mysteries, and more
- Gourmet box lunch
- Farm tour to meet horses, muck a stall, groom
- Ride a horse
- Handouts and photo ops
